

Mosquito Control and West Nile Conference

October 10th, 2018

Aberdeen Recreation & Cultural Center

225 3rd Ave SE, Aberdeen SD

Tuesday, October 9th

Everyone is invited to a Tailgate Party with our speakers and Vendors on Tuesday night starting around 5:30pm at the Wylie Park Visitor Center in Storybook Land, 2116 NW 24th Avenue, Aberdeen. This will be a gathering to see equipment demonstrations, network, share ideas, and get to know and ask questions of the speakers. Grilled burgers, beans and potato salad will be served, adult beverages will be available.

Wednesday, October 10th

8:30am Category 9 training – South Dakota Department of Agriculture

Conference Begins

9:30am Welcome, Aberdeen Mayor Mike Levsen

9:45am WNV in South Dakota – Dr. Joshua Clayton, State Epidemiologist

10:10am Integrated Mosquito Management for Nuisance & Public Health Mosquitoes in Utah – Ary Faraji, Executive Director/Entomologist, Salt Lake City Mosquito Abatement District

11:10am Vendor introduction

11:30am Break with Vendors

11:45am The South Dakota Mosquito Information System (SDMIS) 2018 Update – Michael Wimberly, SDSU; Michael Hildreth, SDSU

12:30pm Lunch, Vendors will be available

1:15pm Weather Outlook – Laura Edwards, State Climatologist

1:45pm Surveillance & Reporting of West Nile – Dustin Ortbahn, South Dakota Department of Health

2:00pm Larvicide Products & How They Work – Avoiding Resistance – Amanda Bachmann, Pesticide Education and Urban Entomology Field Specialist, SDSU; Adam Varenhorst Extension Specialist – Field Crop Entomologist

3:00pm Advances with Products – Product Updates - What is on the Horizon? – Nate Hill, Adapco

3:30pm Field Demonstrations (Larvaciding, Thermal Fogging with LV sprayer, Calibration and Maintenance)

4:30pm

Evaluations and Sign Out